

Learning Objective: To identify the locations of hot and cold areas of the world in relation to the Equator and the North and South Poles

Look at the map of the world below. Label the North and South Poles, and the Equator. Then colour in the very hot and very cold areas of the world.

